Give Defiance to the Angry Mob and Whip Them in Battle-The Situation Exceedingly Critical at Several Mining Camps.

Felegraph Wires Cut and Tracks Torn Up in All Directions-The Bailroads Undermined with Dynamite and Trains Abandoned.

The Expected Attack Takes Place. KNOXYILLE, Tonn, Aug. 17.—The expected attack on the convict stockade at Oliver Springs was made yesterday morning. It resulted in a fight and the niners were whipped for the first time Fennesses.

Yesterday morning at 5 o'clock Capt. Ferris in command of the guards at Olivers, discovered that the stockade was surrounded by miners. The men had taken position on two woody emi-nences which surrounds the stockade. The leader of the miners shouled to the guards to surrender and give up the convicts. To this Superintendent Ferris replied: "Come and get us." The leader shouted: "All right, 0- d-d you; we'll take you." The battle then began. From almost every direction the balls rained in upon the guards. They were well protected by the stockake. They had the con-victs also well sheltered from the rifto balls. While part of the guards kept prisoners from stampeding the is fired shot after shot into the woods, where the miners held position.

Hundreds of shots had been fired, but the guards remained firm. Finally the miners seemed to think that a storming of the stockade would be successful, and a number of the more bold dashed out of the woods into an open space not more than one hun-dred yards from the fort. They went no further and a number of those in the attack fell. A flag of truce went up from the woods and the guards ceased fired. The leader of the miners said they wished to carry off the wounded. He was assured that he could come to the stockade and not be could come to the stockade and not be hart provided the miners did not fire. The guards were fearful of treachery. When this fellow came in easy range he was covered by rifles. The miners were then allowed to carry off those who had been wounded o. killed. Before they left they declared they would get more ald and come back and wipe out "the guards." It is not known how many, if any, of the guards were wounded. There is a rumor here that wounded. THE MACON FAIR.

resterday Devoted Largely Preparation—Prof. Morrow's Lecture this Morning.

Yesterday was the first day of the Macon Fair. The day was almost wholly spent in preparations. The large merryyelorama of the Battle of Gettysburg were put up and fully opened for patrons. Everybody in Agricultural Hall was busily arranging for exhibiting fruits of all kinds from the natural state up to jellies; potatoes, corr abbage and all other agracultural prolucts produced in central Illinois. The exhibit of stock is larger than last year quite good for the first day WEDNESDAY, ple was present and attentively listened to an entertaining and instructive ad-dress by Prof Morrow of the University of Illinois. The show ring was horses for all work, grade draft horses, conch horses and note and impose, Ladies' Aid Society.

The gentlemen members of the camp-ng party who putched their tents at ake Petzer left early this morning on the Wabash for Oakley, from which place they will haul their baggage four miles overland to the camp ground. They worked until late last night stowing their baggage in a Wabash baggage car, and when everything was loaded there wasn't enough space left for a half dozen men to stand in. The young mon are the victime of a rather cruel joke, and they have no doubt by this time discovered that they have been badly sold. All of the trunks, boxes and tents wore unloaded in the H. Mueller Gun Oo's alley last night before taking them to the depot, and this firm has long been bothered by a large quantity of tin cans, glassware and old clothing which had accumulated about the premises, so they collected them aftogether and placed them in a large box about four feet square and tied a heavy rope around it.
